Dumaguete Client Visit Guide

Getting to Dumaguete

Flight Information:

Dumaguete is serviced by a local domestic airport located in Sibulan, approximately a 20-minute drive from the heart of Dumaguete, located in the island of Negros Oriental.

There are several international carriers that will fly you from Australia to Manila with connections to Dumaguete, including Philippine Airlines and Cebu Pacific Air. Manila to Dumaguete is approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes.

When arriving in Manila, ensure you leave enough time to transfer between the international and domestic terminals for the domestic transfer to Dumaguete. We note that flight times do not always align and you may be required to stay overnight in Manila to transfer on the morning flight into Dumaguete.

Before arriving in you will need to complete an 'Etravel form': <https://etravel.gov.ph/>

Getting Around Dumaguete

Dumaguete does not have a taxi service so we recommend that you organise pick up on arrival with our accommodation provider although WrkPod can organise transfers to your hotel as well. Reach out to us and you book your airport transfer ahead of time by contacting: hello@wrkpod.com Note if you are attending Work Week, transfers will be provided complimentary

Car rentals are available. We recommend Zam Car Rental here: facebook.com/zamcarrenta

Motorised Scooters is a fun way to get around. We recommend:

Geldasa Motorcycles for Rent

Trikes for Hire - Get around like the locals do by hailing a trike from the side of the road. They are Dumaguete's answer to Uber!

WrkPod North to The Henry Resort will cost about 30 P. That's as heap as chips!

Ferry Guide

Ferries depart Dumaguete for further adventures, including routes to Siquijor Island, Liloan, Cebu and lots of other destinations.

Dumaguete to Liloan, Cebu

If you're interested in exploring southern Cebu—especially for those interested in swimming with whale sharks in Oslob, Cebu, the Cebu Island town of Liloan offers a quick and easy connection from Dumaguete. From Sibulan port, Dumaguete, catch a ferry to Liloan Cebu. There are a couple of options from fast cats, (20 mins) to longer ferries taking just under one hour. Fares are from as little as $4. Transfers operate hourly from 4.30am. From there it's a half an hour journey by bus or trike to Tanawan, Oslob, the home of whale shark swimming.

Siquijor Island

Siquijor is known for its white-sand beaches, waterfalls, and folklore. This beautiful island is under 2 hours ferry ride from Dumaguete and is a convenient and scenic place to explore along with an additional side trip to Apo Island.

Book your transfers to Siquijor ahead of time to avoid being disappointed. Book here
